Girl Scouts in central and western Massachusetts have contributed over 125,000 pounds of donations since the Spring of 2007.

Girl Scouts of Central and Western Massachusetts is teaming up with Goodwill Industries to present the "A Good Turn for Goodwill" patch program. Goodwill's mission is to provide services to individuals, families and communities, including people with disabilities. They seek to eliminate barriers to opportunities and foster self-determination in order to improve the quality and dignity of life and full participation in the community.

From November 1 through November 30, Girl Scouts in central and western Massachusetts can participate in a donation drive to collect gently-used clothing and small, light household items for Goodwill Industries. These drives can be done by troops/groups or by individual girls. Through the "A Good Turn for Goodwill" patch program, girls will learn the value of volunteering for those less fortunate, while earning a participation patch.

The Goodwill representative for this donation drive is Linda Livingstone. Should you have any questions, she can be contacted at 413-304-2682 x103 or llivingstone@ourgoodwill.org.
